

TL;DR: I am raising $200M USD with a minimum of $50M USD per investor to enable World Peace by 2035. You will receive a 100x return by January 1st, 2024 .

Albany High School Senior Quote

Hey, I am the #1 expert in the world for a blockchain project (red flag, I know) called Handshake (HNS), which I truly, from the bottom of my heart, believe can flip Bitcoin (another red flag, I know) before January 1st, 2024.

I believe Bitcoin is #1 for only a single reason: brand. Its name is synonymous with “crypto”.

I believe I can drive Handshake's brand to become synonymous with “Internet”, and subsequently overcome Bitcoin's throne. Handshake has strong fundamentals (based on Bitcoin), real utility (decentralized domain names that actually work), world class backers (a16z, Sequoia Capital, Coinbase, Namecheap), a phenomenal logo created by IDEO, and a white hot core of dedicated community members. The only 2 things it has been missing is funding and marketing.

For context, the original creators of Handshake — Andrew Lee (Purse.io, CEO), Christopher Jeffrey (Purse.io, CTO), Joseph Poon (Bitcoin Lightning Network, creator), and Andrew Lee (Private Internet Access, founder) — raised $10.2M USD from various investors like a16z and Sequoia Capital and donated it all away. 100% of the development that has occurred since Handshake's February 2020 mainnet launch has been purely community-funded. In other words, Handshake never had any real funding, until now.

I mention Handshake because this is how you will make your money back. I am also keenly aware of the absurdity of the $200M USD ask. That said, I believe it is a negligible amount when compared to the gravity of World Peace.

Here's how I plan to spend the $200M USD.

Short-term expenditures for setting up:

- $1M USD, co-founders ($500k USD to William Nguyen, $250k USD to David Cowles, $250k USD to Felix Bennett)
- $1M USD, company vehicles (Tesla Models S3XY for myself and my 3 co-founders — I want the Model 3)
- $1M USD, miscellaneous company expenditures
- $5M USD, trust fund to pay myself $100k USD/year for 50 years
- $10.2M USD, Handshake (HNS) — this is exactly how much the original creators of Handshake raised for the project
- $20M USD, offices (777 Panoramic Way, Berkeley, CA & 1925 Beach Drive, Hermosa Beach, CA)
- $20M USD, HNS coins (10% of your investment will be returned to you as HNS coins)

For investors willing to throw down $50M USD, I will return $5M USD for you to purchase Handshake coins. HNS only needs to appreciate by 10x, and you will have made your money back. I believe HNS can reasonably 1000x within 1.5 years, which would make your $5M USD worth $500M USD. The Handshake coin is currently sitting at around $0.05, which is half the price the original investors bought in at (a16z purchased HNS at $0.10). The Handshake coin has historically already hit over $0.80, and even then it was still unreasonably undervalued. A 100x return should be automatic, a 1000x return should be reasonable, and a 2000x return isn't impossible.

I can assure you that I will not dump my assets until January 1st, 2024, because I hold 90% of my Handshake assets on Namebase, a custodial service. I intentionally burned my bridge with that company by acting crazy for 10 days, so they are assured to not help me. I have also publicly requested them to freeze my assets until January 1st, 2024 at least 3 times.

Mid-term expenditures for clout:

- $1M USD, #1 hit album
- $1M USD, TrashBots (will be distributed across top-tier universities to advertise my YouTube channel)
- $1M USD, Nobel Prize (shared with my father for overturning the Big Bang Theory)
- $10M USD, family documentary
- $10M USD, .uuu ICANN TLD
- $20M USD, fund NBA All-Star Celebrity Game

Attention is the most valuable asset, not data. However, even powerhouses like Elon Musk and Mr. Beast do not have enough clout to inspire the global population to love each other. My mid-term plan is to drive my clout to the sky and become the #1 celebrity in the world by my 30th birthday on September 11th, 2025. This is necessary if I am to enable World Peace.

Longer-term expenditures for World Peace beta testing:

- $50M USD, $100k USD/year for five years for 100 of my close circle of friends — I will help set up LLCs for each of my friends and only ask for 1% equity
- ~$50M USD, taxes and miscellaneous needs

Elon Musk and Jack Ma disagree on a lot of things, but they do agree on one thing: the answer is love. However, that's too ambiguous.

I believe the answer is in loving what you do for work, because that is how you spend the majority of your waking hours. If you love how you spend your time, you will inevitably love yourself, love your life, and in turn love others, which eventually brings about World Peace. I want to pay everyone in the world a comfortable but not excessive salary to pursue their passion and love until they have reached a point where they can subsist on their own. I believe this can be accomplished by September 11th, 2035, especially with how quickly information travels these days.

I will begin by taking care of 100 of my most ambitious friends to ensure they are doing what they love for the rest of their lives. If I am successful, I will scale up from there. By the time I turn 40, I will have scaled up to the entire global population.

I am very easy to reach — my social media handles are "JayWuzer" on every social media outlet except for TikTok (someone is squatting on my TikTok name LOL), and my Twitter DMs are open. I recommend scrolling through my Twitter account to get a sense of how I think before jumping to conclusions. My YouTube channel may also be helpful for you to get a sense of my personality.

Our goal should be to leave a net-positive effect on the planet before we die. Because if we don't, that means the world literally would've been better without us. And that's just sad.

So let's love each other and enable World Peace, together.

Ciao!
